

Bill Introduced to halt Unrestricted Rule Making by Bureaucrats

Washington - Congressional control over at least a portion of the Federal regulatory establishment will be more than a rhetorical promise, Sen. John Tower said today. If Congress acts favorably on a bill he has introduced to control the unrestricted rulemaking authority of the Federal Trade Commission.

"This bill will return to the citizens of the country through their elected representatives some control over the laws and regulations which govern their conduct in the marketplace," Tower said in introducing the legislation. "One of the biggest problems of modern government is the attempt to

Carter Promises

and a limitation on the President's authority to suspend import quotas.

The President told the cattlemen that he was not opposed to the countercyclical approach but that there was a "need to retain some flexibility" in Presidential decisions on quotas.

Asked to seek greater market access for U. S. beef in Japan and Europe, Carter said he was in favor of expanding overseas markets for beef. McDougal told Carter of NCA efforts to obtain more stability of cattle numbers, in order to minimize cyclical market swings. Carter said he felt this type of industry program could be helpful, and he offered the assistance of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

The President said the basic philosophy of cattlemen and their belief in the free market system were "compatible with my own philosophy." Independent Cattlemen's Association President Roy Wheeler told the President that interability in the market place has taken its financial toll on livestock producers just as it has hurt agriculture as a whole. He said troubled times for ranchers are not over in spite of slightly higher prices received for livestock recently. "Despite higher prices, liquidation is continuing," said Wheeler. "Many hands are calling in loans on livestock for fear of another price drop. Ranchers are selling because they have the same concerns over the market. Financial institutions are hesitant to lend producers capital because of the instability in the marketplace. There will be no attempt to build herds while market uncertainties exist as they do today."

McDougal said cattlemen were generally encouraged by the meeting. He said there was recognition that the Administration and the cattle industry need to have close liaison and a better understanding, in order to maintain confidence on the part of individual cattlemen.

The ANCA president had discussed psychology of the market and the fact that government actions can help or hurt the attitudes of cattlemen. He cited the June 8 import announcement as one which caused a deeper price drop than otherwise would have occurred. He and other cattlemen at the meeting also noted that many producers have not yet sold any cattle at this year's higher average prices. He said they need assurance that there will not be adverse government actions in the future.

Meeting with the President were McDougal, Lauren Carlson, NCA first vice president; George S. Spencer, executive vice president; and C. W. McMillan, vice president-government affairs. Among others present were Curtis Avery, Pine Mountain, Ga.; CattleFax president; Bill Schermer, Edimer, Ia.; NCA Region III vice president and president of the Iowa Cattlemen's Assn.; Jim Cushman, Atlanta, Ga.; Joe Lee Davidson, Rocky Comfort, Mo., president of the Missouri Cattlemen's Assn.; Glenn Gregg, Healdsburg, Ia.; Ralph Cello, Jr., Gainesville, Fla.; Roy Wheeler, President of Independent Cattlemen's Assn., Austin, Tex.; and Kermit Pearson, Florida, S. D.

Administration officials who joined Carter for the meeting included Vice President Walter Mondale; Agriculture Secretary Bob Bergland; Howard Hottel, director of economics and policy analysis for USDA; Jemima Webster, director of USDA's office of government and public affairs; and Lynn Deft, associate director of domestic policy (for agriculture) in the White House.

Stuph & Thangs

These elitists were interested in law could be damned and they usually got away with it.

It appears this sickness is not only prevalent, but has reached epidemic proportions. For instance, take the case of union members in certain vital areas such as fire & police protection, teachers, postal workers and others who are specifically prohibited from endangering the people by wawkin' off their jobs, yet continue to do so with impunity. The unionists are not alone in their disdain of laws they don't like.

For instance, consider the recent White House flap over President Carter's drug advisor Dr. Peter Bourne who knowingly wrote an illegal prescription and excused this violation of the law as justified as the young lady for whom it was written would not personally pick up the drug and perhaps be tagged as a drug user. Dr. Bourne's high position as a right hand man of President Carter seemed to have given him assurance he was above the law. For instance consider the people who stole film and furniture and tires and other supplies from the general German, general manager, phone 512/267-4286, on either sale.

WEEKLY LIVESTOCK REPORTER

August 3, 1978

One of these people was reported a drug addict and snatched over $100,000 worth of film to support his habit.

Just recently folks in our immediate area discovered that the Department of Housing & Urban Development had suffered losses of over $10,000,000 in the North Central Texas area. These losses stemmed from bad judgement by HUD people, which oint again the loss, but much of this loss was caused by improper inspection and the lack of people charged with passing on the quality of the work & materials in the HUD garanteed buildings simply approved shoddy merchandise which caused these losses.

The part of this whole Scuff Law business is that the miscreants seldom get even a slap on the wrist. Unless we misread the Public Mind on the matter, most people would like to see people who break the law punished and until some are punished the popular distrust for the laws of the land ain't gonna go away.

If President Carter really wants to go down in history as a great president, this is a golden opportunity. If he gets in behind the enforcement people and licks some of these Scuff Laws in jail, he'll have made his mark and will have earned the gratitude of all the people who suffer or are endangered by people who figger laws are made for you & me and not for them.

Ever thine, The Editor.

P. S.: Uncle Dunk vova there aint a word of truth in the story about how Jimmy Carter is bruggin' about being Bourne Again. Dunk says if all them people ohing and ahing over that test tube baby was payin' attention to what's been goin' on in the cow business they might not be so surprized. Just recently a calf was born in Germany to a cow implanted with an embryo from Company's Genetics Division reported this happy event and on top of everthang else, this embryo was PROZEN!

Dunk figgers there aint no way a National Energy Program can be put into workable shape. For instance, Congress turned down a coal slurry pipeline, because the coal might hurt Eastport. Coal Producers and railroads, and states short of oil and gas are arm rasalin' all over the place as the Haves and Have Nots try to get the best of each other! — Thassall, Brothers!

Curtail Attaches Is False Economy

Waco — A move by the Carter Administration to cut agricultural trade attaches from the U. S. Department of State has been labeled "false economy" by Carrol Chaloupka, president of Texas' largest farm organization.

The agricultural attaches in several countries whose job it is negotiating trade agreements with other nations, would be eliminated in a budget-cutting move initiated by the President.

"Export of our farm products plays a crucial role in balancing the huge flow of money Americans pay to other nations for oil and other imports," said Chaloupka, president of the 214,000 member Texas Farm Bureau.

Sale headquarters will be the Holiday Inn at Ada, Oklahoma. For information and sale catalogs contact Bates Limousin Ranch, Burwell M. Bates, Box 128, Knowla, Okla. 74648, 405/925-3255 or Wyman Poe, General Manager, 405/925-3853.

not could mean the loss of many millions of dollars in exports... and the loss of those exports means loss of jobs throughout the U. S. economy and further loss of value of the American dollar in relation to other currencies.

The Farm Bureau would like to see more agricultural attaches overseas, not fewer. And the farm organization would like to see the status of agricultural attaches elevated.

There are approximately twenty thousand State Department employees overseas, only 280 of whom are with the Foreign Agricultural Service.

In calling the proposed reduction of agricultural attaches "false economy," the Farm Bureau president stressed the importance of exports of farm products not only to farmers, but the economy as a whole.

Government figures show that well over a million full-time civilian jobs depend on farm exports, generating an estimated twenty-four billion dollars to the U. S. economy in addition to the money brought in from export sales.

"Eating Out" expenditures during the past 10 years has jumped 168% in the United States.

Crossbred champion in the third special "Top Dollar" stocker and feeder calf show and sale of this season held July 27 at Fort Worth Stockyards are pictured above. The champion steers, top left, were consigned by Mrs. Alma McCutchen, Argyle, and weighed 565 and sold for $12.00 cwt. The reserve champion steers, top right, were consigned by Top Calf Cattle Co., Justin, weighed 499 and sold for $89.40. Tex-Call consigned the champion heifers, bottom left, that weighed 605 and sold for $80.50 cwt., grossing $514.25 per head; and Mrs. McCutchen consigned the reserve heifers, bottom right, that weighed 471 and sold for $62.50 cwt. Next special "Top Dollar" sale will be Aug. 31.

Tariff Deregulation Bill Goes To House, Senate

Kansas City, Mo. — Officials of Livestock Marketing Association are looking forward to final Congressional passage of a livestock marketing tariff deregulation bill following the Senate Agriculture Committee's approval of the measure Wednesday, July 19. A similar bill, H. R. 94821 which would validate the use of percentage or value-based marketing tariffs is now before the House. It was passed by the House Agriculture Committee June 28. The Senate Committee action was unanimous and the bill is 32721 now goes before the full Senate.

LMA President Larnn Casey said the Senate Committee's passage of the bill "is striking evidence that this Committee, like its counterpart in the House, believes that the nation's livestock marketing businessmen should have the right to set their own rates and charges, governed by the pressure of our competitive free market system."

Beef Cattle Price Outlook

College Station — What is the cattle price outlook for the remainder of 1978? Producers and consumers have watched cattle prices decline sharply and the market react violently during the past several weeks, notes Dr. Edward Uvacek, Jr., livestock marketing specialist with the Texas Agriculture Extension Service.

Uvacek points out that fed cattle prices dropped from the $62 per hundredweight level of early June to the $50 level by mid-month. Feeder prices showed a similar drop.

"The sharp decline resulted from simultaneous reaction to several distinct factors: consumer resistance to high retail beef prices, weakness in the commodity futures market, increases in beef supplies; and the psychological effect of the government's announcement of increased allowable beef imports for the year," Uvacek explains.

Although some price recovery occurred in July, many producers are still concerned about the outlook for the remainder of 1978. Uvacek, also an associate professor in Texas A&M University's Department of Agricultural Economics, adds:

He points out that some forecasts, including that of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, look for further improvement in the third quarter of the year, with some weakness in the fourth quarter. The real key to their forecasts, however, is an estimated 7 percent decrease in beef production for the second half of the year. The USDA analysis places the average price of U. S. choice fed steers in Omaha during the July-September period at $55-$57 per hundredweight. Price predictions for similar cattle in the fourth quarter are $54-$55.

Uvacek's view of third quarter beef supplies is not quite as encouraging. He expects only 2 percent less beef production and larger pork, hollar and turkey supplies.

"Total red meat and poultry production could be up 1 1/2 to 2 percent from a year ago. That would be the largest production of the year and undoubtedly would limit price recovery," he contends. Fourth quarter estimates point toward a somewhat improved supply situation, Uvacek says.

"Recovery during that period seems highly likely," he believes. The specialist's cattle price outlook includes these specific forecasts:

Amarillo choice fed cattle — price recovery forecast during the early part of the July-September quarter. Increased pressure as the August-September period is approached. Lowest prices expected during either September or October, with recovery beyond that point into 1979. The July-September price average should be about $49.50-$51.50 per hundredweight, and the October-December average is expected to be from $50-$52.

Amarillo choice feeder cattle — prices should follow almost exactly the same seasonal pattern as fed cattle. Larger marketings of feeder animals are likely just when feedlot losses are expected, with recovery after that. Choice 600 to 700 pound feeder steers should average $50-$52 per hundredweight in July-September, and $50.50-$52.50

Kent McVey, 18 year old son of Duane and Carolyn McVey of Stillwater, Okla., was elected to the board of directors of the National Junior Polled Hereford Council during the 6th National Junior Polled Hereford Heifer Show and Forum in Springfield, Ill. July 10-14. During his two-year term, he will represent junior Polled Hereford breeders in Oklahoma, Texas and New Mexico.

BRANGUS For Feeder Calf Profits.

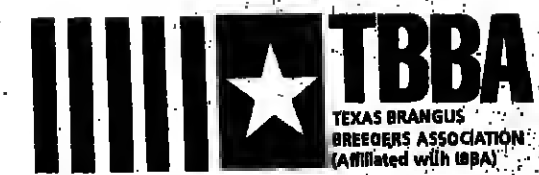

Black Baldies, (Brangus/Hereford crosses), are in strong demand by feeders and bring top market prices for you!

Black Baldies are an ideal feeder animal. Ask any commercial cowman about the great calves with "a little ear". Medium-sized at birth, they make calving easy for any type of cow. They gain quickly on feed or forage, and average 75 to 100 pounds heavier at weaning than English breeds.

Brangus feeders mean fewer problems for the operator because they are adaptable to climatic extremes and are pest and disease resistant. But most important, Brangus feeders are consistently PROFITABLE. They lay down internal fat early and finish early with enough marbling to grade choice. Brangus calves are preferred — by stockers, feeders, packers, and consumers. If you want PROFIT, you need BRANGUS!

Higher Last Week, Movement Increased

St. Joseph, July 28 (USDA) - National feeder cattle and calf receipts this week 217,800, last week 189,000, year ago 212,000. Prices for feeder cattle and calves moved sharply higher this week even though numbers reflected a substantial increase. Prices were largely 1.00-3.00 higher, instances as much as 4.00-5.00 up in scattered areas across the country.

Movement showed a marked increase through the mountain states and into the West and prices wound up steady to 2.00 higher. Renewed interest in acquiring feeders following last week's price decline was belated by price gains for slaughter steers and heifers during the forecast of the week as well as continued prospects for grain crops and the cattle inventory report which was released at mid-week.

In the report released this week, the USDA reported the July 1 cattle and calf inventory to be down 7% from a year earlier at nearly 122 million head. The 1978 calf crop was expected to be 44.1 million head, which is 4% less than the 46.1 million in 1977 and 13% under the record of 50.3 million in 1974.

DRINKING TANK PROBLEMS SOLVED
As well as all reservoirs and spray tank. Lifetime Tank Coatings for steel plate tanks, corrugated galvanized iron tanks, and rock and concrete tanks. Thousands of these tanks of various sizes have been restored to be better than a new tank, not coated. Over 3 million pounds now in service since 1968. Stop all leaks, any size hole or crack. Prevent rust forever. A new tank properly coated will not be replaced in a lifetime. Anyone can apply by brush. Not a paint, the only material known that prevents seepage in basement walls. Twice the hardness of concrete. Write or call for our catalog. All orders shipped same day received. This is our 28th year.
